THE ACADEMY AT A GLANCE

GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

The Brad Brewer Golf Academy offers professional instruction to new players to tour players, adults and juniors, in private and group settings. Just east of the Orange County Convention Center expansion, the Brad Brewer Golf Academy is located at award winning Rosen Shingle Creek Luxury Hotel and Golf Club.

Since its opening in January of 2004, the Brad Brewer Golf Academy has garnered Golf Magazine's Top 25 Golf School in America award. The Evaluation Panel's defining criteria included: breadth of programs encompassing tee-to-green skill improvement; low student-to-teacher ratio; state of the art technology and training tools used during lessons; instructors' experience and availability, and, the quality of the Academy's facilities and accommodations.

The Academy Studio houses two technology bays allowing students to hit balls out onto the range all the while benefiting from seeing their progress on wall monitors captured by hi-speed cameras. True ball flight statistics using Doppler radar are provided via launch monitor technology. Green grass facilities include a private driving range, two putting and chipping greens and bunker.

BACKGROUND:

Owner and president, Brad Brewer, also received Golf Magazine's Top 100 Teacher award based upon the success his students have achieved and his commitment to growing the game of golf which spans nearly three decades. Other awards include Professional Golf Association's Teacher of the Year, and Junior Golf Leader of the Year.

Prior to opening the Academy that bears his name, Brad Brewer co-founded the Arnold Palmer Golf Academies with legendary golfer, Arnold Palmer, was President of Sport at Saddlebrook Preparatory School near Tampa, where he developed and implemented high performance training curriculum for aspiring junior golfers enrolled in the international boarding school. Brad also contributed to bringing to the teaching industry, the technology that allows students to benefit from instruction via the Internet. Before devoting his time and talent to the improvement of his students' games, Brad successfully competed on the Austral-Asian PGA Tour and Hogan/Nike Tours.

A contributor to publications such as Golf Fitness Magazine, Golf Tips Magazine, Golf Digest Magazine and Golf Magazine, Brad authored, Golf for Everybody, and, Mentored by the King, Arnold Palmer soon to be released by Zondervan, a division of Harper-Collins.
